UP AGAIN.—The River.

COURT.—The 26th of April.

LOST.—A Miller's safe key, see "ad."

WANTED.—A few more subscribers for the SOUTHERNER. Only $2.00 per year.

PEDAGOGUE.—The ex-negro Senator Mabson we hear.

THEATRIANS.—Next week. Hurrah for our boys!

SNOW.—A light snow Monday night. Enough to kill garden plants and fruits.

WILDMAN.—Are playing in Newbern. Hope they will not give us the go-by.

GRAB ALL.—Was a little turbulent on Sunday, but the police promptly checked it.

FOR SALE.—Mr. R. H. Rowe wishes to sell his bar and fixtures. See advertisement.

CONVENTION.—The radicals are quiet over the Convention. Haven't heard of their state being filled up yet.

COMMITTED.—We learn John Goodman, colored, was committed to jail on Tuesday for burglary, having broken into a house on the Poor House premises the night before.

SPARTA BRIDGE.—We understand the Sparta Bridge is almost impassable from the effects of the last heavy frost. The commissioners will have it promptly repaired.

THE STEAMER NORTHEAST.—Left her wharf for Washington a few days ago. Hope she will be running regularly soon.

For the best Planters Hoes for the least money, go to the Hardware Store of W. G. Lewis.

TEMPERANCE SPEECH.—Mr. W. D. Bryan delivered himself very handsomely last Friday night. Mr. P. S. Pender is the next speaker. We dare say his will be the crowning speech of the season.

DESTRUCTION.—A hurricane swept through Edgecombe Saturday night doing much harm to stock, farm buildings and fences. It was the severest we have ever witnessed in these parts.

DANCE AT S. R. ROAD.—We regret that we were unable to attend the dance given at Cross Roads last Thursday evening. Quite a number was present from Tarboro and we learn that the affair was a very pleasant one indeed.

POSTPONED.—The races to have come off at Runnymede Park this Spring have been postponed until the Fall. We are not informed why.

ON A VISIT.—We were pleased to receive a call this week from Geo. Pope, Esq., of Flushing, Long Island. He is an intelligent English gentleman who has settled near Flushing, and is engaged in agriculture. He was the guest of Mr. R. B. Alsop.

THE BISHOP.—Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, will preach at the Episcopal Church in this place next Sunday morning and evening. Applicants will be accepted.

Low prices rule at the Hardware Store of W. G. Lewis, save your money by buying there.

GUANO STORING.—In the amended town charter it is made the imperative duty of the Board of Commissioners to remove or prevent the storing of any guano when it shall be adjudged to be a nuisance to any citizen or citizens. The old amendment which has been repealed only empowered the Commissioners to do so.

WIRE OUT.—When you look about you to see who shall be the town officers after the first Monday in May, put it down as an inexcusable fact that every individual in harness with the present administration, radically inclined, must be wiped out. Equally as competent men can be found to fill their places.

DELINQUENT STAMPS.—Reader, pause for a moment and think of the two dollars you owe for your county paper. Some owe for two and three and some as many as four years. This may seem a small matter to you, but altogether it is a matter of great importance to us. When you come to town Saturday or Tuesday enquire for the SOUTHERNER office and pay up. All who are in arrears two weeks longer will be stricken off. We can't afford to have dead heads. Paper costs money.

Cleaves, Lop Rings, Plow Swingle Trees, Garden Tools, Trace Chains, Hames, &c., &c., at bottom prices, at W. G. Lewis Hardware Store.

Buy your heavy 4-4 Brown Sheetting, your Cotton Yarns and your Plow Lines, of Battle & Son's Rocky Mount Mills.

Keep your money at home by patronizing your home Tailor.

Why send your orders North accompanied with cash, when you can buy as cheap for cash of Pender & Jenkins.

FOR SALE.—Mr. R. H. Rowe wishes to sell his bar and fixtures. See advertisement.

CONVENTION.—The radicals are quiet over the Convention. Haven't heard of their state being filled up yet.

THURSDAY BEFORE LAST.—Was a prolific day in the way of local items—trials, rowdies, fights, &c.

PRINTERS.—Why is it so many printers are idle? We have frequent applications both in person and by mail.

RETURNED.—Mrs. Feldenheimer has just returned with new goods. Look out for her opening.

X MARK.—Look out for the X mark on your paper. Pay up in two weeks or your paper will be stopped.

PRESEBYTERY.—The next session of the Orange Presbytery will meet in Tarboro on the 21st of April.

TOWN OF TARBORO.—The bill for the better government of the town of Tarboro, ratified by the late General Assembly, divides the town into three wards which are severally bounded as follows:

The first ward shall include all that part of said town included within a line beginning at the intersection of Main Street with Granville Street, thence running northerly with said Main to the intersection of the same with St. John's Street, thence easterly along St. John's Street till it intersects St. David's Street, thence westerly along Pitt Street to the intersection thereof with St. Andrew's to the intersection thereof with Granville and thence along Granville westerly to the beginning.

The second ward includes all that part of the town included within a line beginning at the intersection of Main Street with Granville to the track of the Williamson and Tarboro Railway running along Mill Creek Street thence northerly along track of said railway till the intersection thereof with Pitt; thence easterly along Pitt till the intersection thereof with Trade Street; thence northerly along Trade Street till the intersection thereof with St. James' Street, thence westerly along St. James' Street to the track of the said railway; thence northerly along the track of the said railway till the intersection thereof with St. John's Street, thence easterly along St. John's Street to the intersection thereof with Trade Street, thence northerly along Trade Street, till the intersection thereof with Wilson Street, thence westerly along Wilson Street till the intersection thereof with the track of the said railway; thence northerly along the track of the said railway till it intersects the line of the projected street running immediately in front of R. A. Watson's house and along the North side of said Watson's lot; thence easterly along said projected street till it intersects the line of Main extended and thence southerly along Main to the beginning.

The third Ward includes all that portion of the town not included within the bounds of the first and second Wards.

The bill further provides that the corporate powers of the town shall be vested in six Commissioners, two of whom shall be elected from each ward. The Mayor is elected from their number who shall vote as Commissioner and not as Mayor.

The first election under this act takes place on the first Monday in May 1875, and thereafter annually upon the first Monday in May of each and every year.

Win. M. Phippen in the first ward, D. W. Hart in the second, and David Anderson in the third are Registrars. Books will be opened at the following places: First Ward, at the Court House; Second Ward, at the office of Orren Williams; in the Third Ward, at the Market House Hall. Every elector must reside 90 days next preceding the election for Commissioners in the lot and ward at the time of registration.

If any Registrar sees fit to challenge any elector, the challenged party must prove his residence by two witnesses of known credibility to the Registrar, and in the election votes challenged by the judges must prove themselves qualified by persons of known credibility to the judges.

At the first election to be held under this act the following persons are empowered to act as Inspectors of Election: In the first ward, John W. Cotton and Osceola C. Doggett; in the second ward, Fred. Phillips and John Norfleet; in the third, Joseph B. Coffield and Warren J. Jones.

It is provided further that any person who shall, with intent to commit a fraud, register or vote in more than one ward or shall induce another to do so, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be imprisoned not less than 6 months or fined not less than 100 nor more than 500 dollars.

Again, no person shall erect any wooden building or buildings with wooden roofs without the written permission of the Commissioners on any squares contiguous to Main Street.

On the first Monday in May, and biennially thereafter, there shall be elected under the same regulations one Justice of the Peace for each ward.

For further information see the advertisement of Registrars.

MARCH WEATHER CAN'T BE TRUSTED.

TARBORO.—Will look better in the new dress she proposes to "donne" after the first Monday in May.

THANKS.—To Mr. R. B. Alsop for the first Rock Fish of the season. They were excellent and as good as the giver.

For the best Planters Hoes for the least money, go to the Hardware Store of W. G. Lewis.

MEDICAL CONVENTION.—We hear the doctors in Edgecombe and their practicing in the country immediately adjacent will meet in Tarboro on the 6th of April to organize a County Medical Association. A full attendance is desired.

LOST.—Capt. Phillips has lost a fine thorough bred, double nose female pointer, white with liver-colored spots, answering to the name of "Delta." A suitable reward will be paid upon her delivery.

REDEMPTIVE.—Who said Mr. J. E. Simmons had stopped business because his advertisement disappeared from the SOUTHERNER? He is still prepared to furnish Furniture of all kinds at the lowest figures for the quality of work. Undertaking is a specialty with him. Mr. Simmons is a live business man and will always do well.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.—We learn, says the Journal, that Hon. A. M. Waddell has appointed Master Mark B. Bridges, a son of Hon. R. R. Bridges, of this city, to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. From what we know of the young gentleman we can safely predict for him an honorable and perhaps an illustrious career in the future.

Low prices rule at the Hardware Store of W. G. Lewis, save your money by buying there.

LIVE STOCK.—We find in the Paris Free Kentuckian of March 17th, the following live stock item:

March 13th, Mr. Orr and Chas. Dozier, of North Carolina, who are at the stables, have bought 10 head of good geldings. They want a few more good geldings.

Maj. Orr and Mr. Dozier arrived on Tuesday with the horses. They are fine blooded animals of Kentucky breed, and are the best ever brought to this market. Call and see them.

TIT FOR TAT.—We hear the radical lawyers threaten to throw over-board every democratic Justice of the Peace in the county in case two democrats are elected in May under the provisions of the recent Act for the town of Tarboro. All right. When a white man in the country has business in a Magistrate's Court, he will come to town before white magistrates. It will be a little inconvenient, that's all, and then one good turn deserves another.

TARBOROAN ABROAD.—We clip from the Salisbury correspondence of the Raleigh News, the following concerning Mr. H. A. Crenshaw.

The attendance upon the last session of the Superior Court was extremely large. On Tuesday and Wednesday nights of Court week the College Chapel was crowded to witness the plays of "Ben Bolt" and "The Loan of a Lover," rendered by the young ladies and gentlemen of the town, assisted by Mr. H. A. Crenshaw, of the Tarboro Theatrical Corps.

GREAT DESTRUCTION.—The severe tornado which swept through Edgecombe last Saturday night has been elsewhere noticed in general terms. As a evidence of its great destruction we give an account of the worst accident that we have heard of. Mr. Sol Pender's plantation was left a complete waste. Every building on his premises was blown down and timber scattered in all directions except his residence, the roof of which was dislocated. A number of trees three feet through were uprooted and some of them blown a distance of a hundred yards. Stables, barns and shelters were demolished and their contents rendered worthless in most cases. Several hogs have not yet been found. Gen'l Lewis, who saw the place Wednesday, estimates Mr. Pender's loss considerably over $500. We regret to hear of the misfortune.

Cleaves, Lop Rings, Plow Swingle Trees, Garden Tools, Trace Chains, Hames, &c., &c., at bottom prices, at W. G. Lewis Hardware Store.

LAST CHANCE.—The last chance to get the Benbow House or some other large gift for two dollars and fifty cents! The drawing of the Grand Gift Contest, in Greensboro, N. C., has been deferred until April 10th, when it will, without any further delay, be proceeded with. Those wishing to invest can do so by sending to the Manager, C. P. Mendenhall, box 8, Greensboro, N. C., or of the agents at different places. Tickets for sale in this place by H. M. Williams.
